MOE'S

Meili Table Lamp

A little sculpture that just happens to light the room. The Meili pairs a narrow, tall mango wood base with a cozy boucle shade, striking that sweet spot between artisanal and everyday-easy. The carved silhouette and dark brown finish bring a grounded, transitional feel, while the textured shade softens the look with warm, tonal depth. Put it where you want a quiet focal point—and let it do the talking.

- Sculptural Silhouette: A narrow, tall profile with carved detailing creates a transitional statement that feels collected, not fussy, in any setting.
- Mango Wood Base: Solid mango wood brings natural character and a grounded presence, finished in dark brown for a classic, versatile look.
- Boucle Shade Softness: A polyester boucle shade adds texture and gentle diffusion, giving your space warmer light and a more relaxed feel.
