Highland House Uph

5025K - Blythe King Upholstered Bed

Taking its inspiration from a 1940's French design, our Blythe bed features a refined, padded upholstered headboard which sits out from the upholstered framing. The headboard, footboard and rails are accentuated by a carved oak base. The headboard is standard with no tufting, yet is available button pulled, vertical channel tufted and welt with buttons. Nail trim is also available around the base and top and sides of the offset panels. Also available with carved oak trim around the headboard as the Carved Blythe Bed.
