Holland Mirror Small Brown

Flat frames, take notes. Holland gives tradition a tactile twist. Carved from mango wood with groove and scallop detailing, it nods to classic molding—then turns up the texture. The warm, aged finish highlights natural grain, bringing depth, warmth, and the right amount of charm to your wall.

- Playful Carved Details: The traditional frame shape showcases the playful addition of rectangular, carved details and delicate scalloping, creating both visual and tactile interest.
- Mango Wood Warmth: The warm, brushed finish highlights the natural wood graining, creating a piece that feels both timeless and fresh, with a nod to heritage design.
