Caro Side Table Travertine

Small table, big “where’d you get that?” energy. Caro keeps things clean and approachable with a square stone top softened at the edges, then balances it on a rectangular base tied together by a slim iron rod. The blackened bronze finish adds warmth, while travertine brings natural texture and variation that makes each piece feel personal. Light enough to float around the room, it’s the perfect perch for a drink, a book, or a well-placed accent.

- Soft-Square Profile: A compact drink table with a square top and rounded edges, designed to layer easily into modern, transitional, or classic rooms.
- Stone And Iron Mix: Natural travertine adds subtle texture and variation, paired with sturdy iron for a grounded base that still reads visually light.
- Warm Metal Finish: Iron details are finished in blackened bronze for a warmer tone, connected by a slim rod that keeps the silhouette airy.
- Easy To Move: Lightweight and flexible for living rooms, lounges, or beside a reading chair—always ready to slide closer when you need it.
