MOE'S

Calder Dining Chair Oat

Not the loudest chair in the room, and that's the point. A sculpted back and tapered solid ash legs give the Calder a clean, grounded silhouette that ages well in any dining room. A soft oat polyester seat over foam-and-fiber fill keeps the sit comfortable and easy to live with. A solid ash frame on plywood support keeps the structure sound through years of daily meals. Quiet, foundational, and made for the everyday table.

- Sculpted Silhouette: A sculpted back and tapered solid ash legs give this dining chair a clean, foundational silhouette that settles into any dining room.
- Oat Polyester Seat: A soft oat polyester seat over foam-and-fiber fill brings everyday comfort and an easygoing texture that keeps the chair relaxed and livable.
- Solid Ash Frame: A solid ash frame on plywood support holds the chair steady through years of daily meals, keeping its shape and structural integrity.
- Tapered Ash Legs: Tapered solid ash legs lift the silhouette with a light, grounded stance, giving the chair a clean profile that pairs with most tables.
