30.5h x 23.5w x 23.5d

Brass

Antique/Mirror

Inspired by Narasimha, the lion god in Hindu mythology, the Lion in the Library Table is crafted of solid brass with a round mirrored top. The upper section of the leg features a detailed lion's head while the lower section is adorned with a lion's paw. This majestic table can be used to anchor chairs in a conversation area or as a side table beside your favorite armchair.
