Corey Side Table Dark Brown

Sometimes the best piece is the one that just feels right. Corey is a foundational form—round, balanced, and quietly confident—designed to read both timeless and contemporary. A simple pedestal base supports a thick, substantial tabletop for a grounded presence that holds its own next to a sofa or bed. Oak veneer over MDF highlights the natural grain with a consistent finish. Consider it your go-to surface for lamps, drinks, and nightly essentials.

- Foundational Round Form: A classic pedestal silhouette with a thick top feels calm and current, adding structure beside a sofa, chair, or bed.
- Grain-Forward Oak Look: Oak veneer over MDF showcases natural-looking grain with a consistent finish, making it easy to pair with mixed woods.
- Solid-Looking Profile: A substantial tabletop and balanced base create a well-made feel, with clean edges that keep the shape looking intentional.
- Nightstand-Friendly Size: Works as a side table or bedside perch, offering a stable surface for a lamp, book, and water within easy reach.
