The Griffin Queen Sleeper Sofa combines tailored style with everyday versatility, making it a refined addition to the living room. Upholstered in light brown semi-aniline top grain leather, it offers a soft, elevated feel with rich natural character. A three-seat design with wide track arms and padded outside arm panels creates a substantial, design-forward silhouette, while tapered wood feet in a dark finish provide a polished foundation. Effortlessly transforming into a queen-size fold-out sleeper, the Griffin Queen Sleeper Sofa delivers both comfort and functionality—perfect for accommodating overnight guests with style.
