Danny Counter Stool Ivory

Small footprint, big exhale. Danny keeps your kitchen looking light while your seat feels fully supported. A slim iron frame arcs around the back and arms, leaving the base open and airy. Ivory polyester upholstery with clean seams wraps a foam-cushioned seat and back, anchored by a plywood core for steady comfort. The result is a counter stool that disappears visually—until someone claims it for morning coffee, weeknight dinners, and every linger-longer conversation at home.

- Airy Metal Silhouette: A slim, curved iron frame and open base keep the profile light, letting the stool blend in without disappearing visually.
- Easy-Care Upholstery: 100% polyester upholstery covers a foam-cushioned seat and back, with a plywood core underneath for supportive structure and everyday use.
- Slim Yet Sturdy: Iron frame construction balances a refined curve with steady strength, while integrated foot support keeps the stool feeling grounded always.
- Padded All Around: Cushioned seat and backrest invite longer sits at the counter, giving you comfort for quick bites and slower catch-ups too.
