Augusta Nightstand Brown

History in every panel. Augusta brings a heritage character to a classic silhouette. Crafted from reclaimed wood once used in India's railway system, each strip has been naturally seasoned over time—giving the piece its rich tonal variation and weathered charm. Vertical and horizontal panels create a quiet rhythm across the front, while subtle overhangs on the top and base nod to tradition. Rustic in material, refined in shape—this one tells a story without saying a word.

- Railway Heritage Reimagined: Reclaimed wood, once an integral part of India's railway system, finds new life as a piece that celebrates the country's rich heritage and craftsmanship.
- Seasoned and Durable: The reclaimed wood is naturally seasoned over many years, resulting in a durable material with beautiful variations in color and texture.
- Rustic Meets Refined: The sideboard's rustic character is beautifully balanced by its traditional silhouette, with graceful overhang details on the top and bottom.
