Hawkins Sofa Tan

If you like your sofa supportive—with a little vintage attitude—meet Hawkins. Mid-century modern lines get a transitional softening here, thanks to a high back that actually shows up for your posture and curved, sloped arms that nod to classic silhouettes. Tonal seam detailing keeps the bench seat looking tailored without feeling fussy. Wrapped in light vintage tan top-grain leather that will age and patina beautifully, it's a forever favorite in the making.

- Vintage-Modern Profile: Mid-century cues meet transitional ease with a supportive high back and curved, sloped arms that bring subtle throwback character.
- Light Tan Leather: 100% top-grain leather in a vintage tan tone that starts soft and broken-in, then develops richer patina over time.
- Solid Frame Core: Solid red meranti and plywood frame construction designed for everyday use, keeping the silhouette steady and the sit consistent.
- Bench Seat Comfort: Foam-and-fiber fill over S-spring suspension delivers an inviting, supportive sit, with tonal seam detailing that keeps the look clean.
