Early Counter Stool Tan Leather

Minimal frame, maximum sitting time. Early brings calm, considered lines to the kitchen island, with a curved back that makes lingering feel effortless. A slim metal frame in a blackened bronze finish keeps the profile light, while foam cushioning over a plywood shell adds steady support. Wrapped in high-quality tan leather, it pairs especially well with warm wood tops and clean dinnerware. Pull it up, settle in, and let the room do the talking today.

- Slim, Easy Lines: A clean counter-height silhouette with a curved back and blackened bronze-finish frame that stays light around the kitchen and works with modern or classic tables.
- Leather, Done Right: 100% leather upholstery brings warm, smooth comfort, paired with foam padding that supports long meals and quick catch-ups around the island.
- Steady Inner Structure: Foam over a shaped plywood shell creates a supportive seat and back, set on a slim metal frame for steady daily use.
- Pull-Up Friendly: Comfortably curved, high-back support makes this stool easy to settle into, and the open frame tucks neatly under most counters without crowding the room.
