

Galen Sculpture Botticino Beige Marble

Nature-made. Statement-ready. Galen brings that found-object feel, with a polished twist. Made from Botticino marble, each piece has its own natural veining, tone, and shape, so no two are exactly alike. The elongated, curved form feels modern and fluid, while the slender iron stand keeps it grounded. It's a little bit organic, a little bit curated, and all about showing off the beauty of the stone. One of a kind, and styled to stand out.

- Italian Marble: Distinctive veining patterns and rich color variations inherent in Botticino marble create a one-of-a-kind visual narrative.
- Iron Simplicity: The minimalist iron base serves as a sleek and understated anchor for the sculpture, allowing the marble to take center stage.
