The Anisa Black Storage Bench, covered in Trailside Natural Instinct Safari fabric, combines several weaving techniques. The natural oak form in caviar black finish is fitted with rattan cane panels, while the larger rattan sections are done in a radio weave and the smaller ones in an open weave. Not only does this mix it up texturally, it adds interest to this piece that was designed by Aimee Kurzner. The parchment-colored seat and the plinth base on which it sits places this firmly in a natura
