

Large Antiqued Mirror

DM174

Availability: In Stock

DESCRIPTION

Heavily watermarked and corroded, our Large Antiqued mirror is meant to look ages old. The variations of colors found under the toughened glass are a result of tin sulfates and mildly acidic solutions that interact under the sun. No two will ever be alike, so rest assured that the one you choose to reflect your sense of style in your urban oasis is truly one-of-a-kind. The mirror is mounted on a simple sealed metal frame that is so thin, it makes the glass seem frameless. We also offer this in a medium size.
