Our Oeil de Boeuf Lamp embodies a sculptural design that adds sophistication to any setting. Crafted from resin, the lamp mimics the look and texture of fine ceramic, while offering enhanced durability. The column-style base is adorned with a series of interlocking oval patterns that create a striking visual impact, reminiscent of bullseye windows found in French architecture. A sleek, white drum shade softens the light, providing a warm, ambient glow. The lamp is anchored by a refined brushed gold base, giving it a modern touch. Perfect for contemporary or transitional interiors, this statement piece is both functional and artistic.
