Adria 18 In Vessel White

Floral, but make it modern. The Adria Vessel brings a soft, petal-like silhouette to shelves and consoles—more sculpture than container. Its rippled texture and gently ruffled opening add movement without feeling fussy, while the transitional profile plays nicely with both clean-lined and layered spaces. Made from Ecomix (recycled paper, natural gum, and chalk powder), it's intentionally decorative and not water safe. A little bloom that never wilts.

- Petal-Edged Profile: Transitional form with floral-inspired detailing and a ruffled opening brings an artful finish that works in modern, classic, or in-between rooms.
- Ecomix Material: Crafted from Ecomix—an environmentally friendly mix of recycled paper, natural gum, and chalk powder—for a lightweight, design-forward decorative piece.
- Textured Ripple Finish: A rippled surface adds depth and visual interest, giving the white finish extra dimension even in monochrome, minimal styling.
- Decor-Only Styling: Designed for decorative use only and not water safe—perfect for dried stems, faux botanicals, or standing solo as a sculptural accent.
