Linnea Vessel Natural

Hand-woven from natural grass, and proudly one of one. Drawing on a traditional weaving craft, the Linnea tapers from a rounded belly to a narrow neck and small footed base for a form that feels timeless and elemental. Made entirely by hand, every vessel carries slight variations in the weave and tone that no two pieces share. Old craft, quietly at home on a modern shelf.

- Ancient Vessel Form: A rounded belly, narrow neck, and small footed base echo an ancient vessel silhouette, giving the piece a timeless, elemental presence on any surface.
- Natural Woven Grass: Woven entirely from natural grass, the vessel carries an organic, earthy texture and warmth that brings genuine handmade character to a shelf or table.
- Handwoven Craft: A traditional weaving craft shapes every vessel by hand, a slow, skilled technique that gives the piece authentic, artisanal character throughout.
- One Of A Kind: Slight variations in the weave and the natural tone of the grass mean no two vessels are ever alike, so yours is entirely its own.
