Daphne Dining Table Large Dark Emperador Marble

Some tables host meals; Daphne hosts the whole evening. A thick slab of Italian Dark Emperador marble sets a deep brown mood, veining included. Below, a mango wood base with carved leg detail meets double pedestal forms that keep the silhouette steady and centered. An iron plate and MDF support the structure for day-to-day use. It seats eight comfortably, so you can spread out plates, and stay awhile without crowding the surface.

- Double Pedestal Form: Twin bases create a balanced, sculptural stance that anchors the room and keeps conversation flowing evenly around the table tonight.
- Emperador Marble Top: Italian Dark Emperador marble brings rich brown tone and natural veining, giving every place setting a grounded, one-of-a-kind backdrop at meals.
- Layered Support Structure: An iron plate and MDF reinforcement sit beneath the top, while the mango wood base keeps weight well-distributed for daily use.
- Comfortably Seats Eight: A generous surface fits shared platters, extra chairs, and homework later, making it as useful on weekdays as weekends too.
