

NAMBA STOOL

BC-1106-24

Curved, compact and cool. This is the Namba stool, named after the bustling streets of Osaka, Japan, a famous district also coined "the stomach of Japan." A nostalgic nod to the seats of local street food vendors in this area, this thoughtful design is crafted from solid white oak with contemporary appeal. Perfect for small spaces featuring slim legs and a nifty criss-cross design, have this lightweight stool float from room to room with ease.

■ Solid white oak construction with a natural, matte finish

■ Lightweight to move fluidly throughout the home

■ No assembly required
