Theo Media Bench Brown

Your TV deserves better than a basic box. The Theo Media Bench brings sculptural curves and rich brown oak warmth to the room—whether it's anchoring your living space or upgrading your entryway. Three soft-close doors keep the visual calm, while a long interior shelf handles the not-so-pretty essentials. Crafted from solid oak with natural wood variation, it's finished with magnetic door catches, a metal handle, and built-in cable management. Clean setup, quieter life.

- Curved, Calm Profile: Sculptural lines and a warm brown finish create a grounded look that plays nicely with modern screens, art, and everyday clutter.
- Oak-Led Materials: Made with solid oak and oak veneer over an MDF back for a cohesive wood look with the stability you want in a media piece.
- Soft-Close Storage: Three doors close smoothly to keep things quiet, with magnetic catches that help everything land neatly and stay put.
- Cable-Friendly Setup: Built-in cable management keeps cords from stealing the spotlight, so your console, router, and soundbar can stay connected and concealed.
