Pax Outdoor Side Table Natural

Small table, big sunshine energy. Pax pairs a playful, splayed tapered base with a calm stone top, so your patio feels designed—not decorated. Crafted in Indonesia with locally sourced teak and travertine, it balances warm grain and cool veining, while visible joinery supports the surface with quiet confidence. Weather-ready outside and polished enough for inside, it's the perch for spritzes, books, and keys—wherever you land. Pull it close, and the generous legs always make room.

- Playful Modern Stance: Splayed tapered legs give this modern side table an easy, generous stance that lightens patios and looks right at home indoors.
- Teak And Travertine: Locally sourced Indonesian teak brings warm grain, while a natural travertine top adds cool character and a smooth place to set drinks.
- Joinery On Display: Supportive joinery sits proudly beneath the top, reinforcing the design and hinting at the careful hands behind every connection you can see.
- Indoor-Outdoor Ready: Made to handle the elements, it transitions indoors without fuss, offering a sturdy spot for cups, candles, and everyday drop-offs.
