MOE'S

Neptune Framed Painting

If your walls could exhale, this would be the sound. Neptune captures that soft, horizon-at-dusk feeling—an abstract landscape with a blurred motif that keeps the mood calm, not busy. Tonal blues layer in like shifting light, with soft white accents that open up the "sky" and give the piece breathing room. Painted in acrylic on a felted ground and finished in a solid pine frame, it's nature—edited.

- Soft-Sky Palette: Layered tonal blues with gentle white accents create an atmospheric, nature-inspired read that feels calming and design-forward in transitional spaces.
- Felted Depth: Acrylic paint on felt brings subtle softness and dimension, helping the blurred motif look intentional while keeping the surface visually grounded.
- Solid Pine Frame: A warm pine frame adds structure and contrast, giving the artwork a clean finish that plays nicely with mixed woods and metals.
