

Mojave

Caracole

The Mohave Desert is known for its great mesas, dry river beds, mountain ranges and towering sand dunes. This buffet combines the best mix of materials that are emblematic of the warm desert. Bullnose corners throughout create flowing curves on this rectangular console. Sundrenched Oak top, sides and base. Contrasting with the top, the doors display textured unfilled Travertine. Thin, metal Whisper of Gold Bands gleam like the sun around the top and door trims. An Almond Milk interior features four adjustable shelves and wire management holes. This substantial piece rests on very thin, Whisper of Gold blade legs.
