

Audrey Chair

Eucafel Black • 241214-002

Overview

This elevated arm chair features a clean top piece that partially overlaps its bottom counterpart and seamlessly blends the back cushion into the armrests in one fluid form. The seat's legs appear to extend from the seat and back, adding architectural interest. The covering, a deep black leather, was sourced from Uruguay and tanned with the leaves that have naturally fallen from the branches of eucalyptus trees.
