Shea Sofa Dark Brown

Meet your new neutral-with-a-point-of-view. Shea keeps the room calm and the day easy, with a tailored skirt and relaxed, coastal-leaning lines that work almost anywhere. A maple, ash, and plywood frame with S-spring suspension supports plush cushions filled with foam, feather, and fiber for a sink-in feel that still holds shape. The removable 100% cotton slipcover has a soft washed hand and washes cold, hang to dry. Real life, sorted—in Dark Brown—warm, grounded always.

- Skirted, Easy Lines: Minimalist profile with a skirted base and transitional coastal attitude; Dark Brown brings a warm, grounded finish that pairs with nearly anything.
- Washed Cotton Cover: Removable 100% cotton slipcover feels softly washed and natural, and it's machine washable in cold water for low-fuss upkeep everyday.
- Supportive Seat Core: Foam, feather, and fiber fill creates a cushioned sit with a little give, while spring support helps it bounce back.
- Sturdy Inner Frame: Maple, ash, and plywood framing keeps the silhouette steady, and S-spring suspension spreads support evenly across the seat all day.
