Hannah Sideboard Blue

Part display case, part hideaway—the Hannah sideboard keeps its options open. Tempered glass fronts show off what's worth seeing while solid panels tuck the rest away, framed in the millwork-inspired lines that give it a classic, traditional character, here in a soft blue. A solid pine body rests on slender dowel legs, with understated bronze hardware adding a soft touch. Two adjustable shelves flex to fit what you store. Quietly classic, however you fill it.

- Millwork Lines: Classic cabinetry proportions and molding-inspired detailing give the Hannah sideboard a traditional look that settles comfortably into a wide range of rooms.
- Solid Pine Body: A solid pine body and slender dowel legs ground the sideboard with natural wood warmth and a light, traditional stance.
- Display And Conceal: Tempered glass fronts reveal what's worth showing while solid panels keep everyday clutter tucked neatly and quietly out of view.
- Adjustable Storage: Two adjustable interior shelves and simple bronze hardware let you reconfigure the space behind doors that open with an easy, quiet pull.
