Lillian Tall Cabinet Dark Brown

Traditional molding meets a glass front—the Lillian cabinet dresses up storage without losing its head. Rectilinear lines and molding detailing on the frame, top, and sides give it a tailored, traditional presence in a deep dark brown. A solid ash frame with ash-veneer panels deepens the grain, while tempered glass doors and removable linen-textured drapery let you show off or screen the contents at will. Two deep drawers keep daily essentials out of sight. Classic, with a few good secrets.

- Classic Form: Rectilinear lines meet traditional molding on the frame, top, and sides for a tall cabinet that feels tailored and traditional at once.
- Rich Ash Grain: A solid ash frame with ash-veneer panels deepens the wood grain, finished in a deep dark brown that suits classic rooms.
- Glass And Drapery: Tempered glass doors with removable linen-textured drapery let you display favorite pieces or screen them from view as the mood shifts.
- Smart Storage: Adjustable shelves handle display while two deep drawers keep essentials tucked away, with iron hardware finishing the tailored look cleanly.
