Description

This table is all about simple style with major impact as it features a Champagne metal brass finished base to add a polished touch to the design. The top is quartered oak in Smoked Stone finish to help highlight the grain detail for a sleek and stylish aesthetic. With the leaves removed at 76" wide, the Clement Dining Table would also work beautifully as an oversized writing desk and is sure to complement minimalist, Scandinavian, or even modern farmhouse-styled designs. As a dining table it can seat several people, and the design easily accommodates chairs or dining benches!
