MOE'S

Delphine Large Mirror Natural

A rope-twist frame that ties the whole room together. Hand-carved rope detailing runs the full circle of the frame, giving the Delphine mirror a handcrafted, artisan quality in warm natural mango wood. The classic rope motif is scaled clean and generous, so it reads current and fresh rather than fussy, while the soft wood tone settles easily into coastal, relaxed, or layered rooms. A twist on tradition that still knows how to keep things relaxed.

- Carved Rope Twist: Hand-carved rope-twist detailing wraps the full round frame, lending a handcrafted, artisan quality scaled clean and generous so it reads fresh, not fussy.
- Solid Mango Wood: The frame is solid mango wood in a warm natural tone, soft and approachable enough to settle into coastal, relaxed, or more layered rooms.
- Round and Versatile: The round shape softens hard lines on a wall and bounces light around, opening up entryways, bedrooms, and baths with an easy, organic feel.
