

Galvanized Planter Side Table

G85

Availability: In Stock

DESCRIPTION

Our Galvanized planter side table is more than meets the eye. You can use it as a planter when you’re in the mood for blossoms or greenery, or flip it over for a great side table when happy hour comes to your garden, patio, porch or living room. The galvanized metal of its gathered shell has a natural distressed look that brings this decorative accent a vintage appeal. It is substantial enough for a sizable plant.
