

Enns Nightstand Dark Brown

Your bedside deserves a little architecture. Enns pairs a modern curved frame with a stone top that feels like a small daily ritual. Travertine sits cradled inside walnut veneer over MDF, finished with a solid walnut edge for a crisp outline. The rounded profile softens the room, while the surface stays ready for water, a book, and your phone. It's calm, considered, and quietly practical—right where you start and end the day, every single night.

- Curved Modern Profile: Soft curves and a framed stone top bring a gallery-like presence that balances straight-lined beds and plush textiles.
- Stone-And-Wood Mix: Travertine top pairs with walnut veneer over MDF and a solid walnut edge for warm contrast and easy coordination.
- Cleanly Framed Finish: The curved walnut structure softly cradles the stone, with tight edges and smooth surfaces that feel well-made from every angle.
- Bedside Ready Surface: A generous top keeps essentials close—lamp, glass, book—so your nighttime routine stays uncluttered and within reach, even in smaller bedrooms.
