Material: Travertine and Metal

Important Use Information: Travertine is a natural stone; it's actually a type of limestone that forms around mineral spring deposits. In celebration of this ancient material, we've purposely left the natural character of the stone be the hero and finished it only with a matte sealer. Dust regularly or use a soft-bristled brush with water and mild soap. Avoid the use of harsh chemicals or abrasive cleaning materials. For spills, the surface must be cleaned immediately with a damp cloth to avoid stains.
