Espira Framed Print

Art that looks like it moved in and instantly made the room smarter. Espira plays with that in-between moment—part painting, part ink spill, all intention—on textured paper that feels collected, not manufactured. Deep green and black tones drift across the surface, with wrinkled texture and torn edges adding real character. A warm solid pine frame, crisp mat border, glass front, and MDF back keep the composition clean and protected.

- Transitional Flow: Inky deep green and black movement meets a clean mat border for a piece that bridges classic and modern with ease.
- Layered Materials: Acrylic paint on textured paper, framed in solid pine and encased in glass for a finished look that stays crisp.
- Intentional Texture: Wrinkled paper and torn edges add depth and contrast, while the MDF back keeps everything neatly supported.
