Construction Details: Crafted with a solid Acacia or rubberwood frame depending on the finish selection, this nightstand combines durability with beauty. The engineered wood top and shelf provide structural integrity while maintaining a sleek finish. The acacia veneer or solid oak drawer fronts are paired with smooth glides, ensuring effortless drawer operation. The tongue and groove joinery enhances strength, and the under-mount glides keep the drawers running smoothly over time. The use of engineered wood beneath the veneer ensures longevity, while maintaining a consistent, flawless finish. The piece is also equipped with plastic floor protection, safeguarding your floors, and kiln-dried wood for enhanced resistance to warping and cracking.
