

Turbo-charged cleaning, built-in intelligence plus auto-dispensing put time back into your day

Giving your clothes the care they deserve doesn't have to be complicated. Built-in intelligence uses AI technology and advanced sensors to detect fabric texture and load size to automatically select the perfect settings. You don't even need to add detergent or fabric softener every time thanks to ezDispense™ that holds enough for up to 18 loads with one fill.* Then, TurboWash™360° does the work, getting even big loads clean in under 30 minutes. If laundry nirvana is a thing, you've just found it.
