Enni Screen Off White

Sometimes a room just needs a little separation. The Enni keeps it effortless with clean lines, a linen-blend wrap, and exposed rubberwood posts. Neutral tones make it endlessly versatile, while its architectural presence adds quiet structure. Equal parts functional divider and understated accent, it's the kind of piece that makes space feel intentional.

- Streamlined Design: Minimalist lines and a neutral off-white palette make this screen an easy fit for both contemporary and classic spaces.
- Linen-Blend Panels: A mix of polyester, viscose, and linen gives the panels a soft, tactile look with durable everyday wear.
- Solid Wood Frame: Crafted from sturdy rubberwood with a walnut finish, the exposed posts add warmth and natural grounding.
- Practical Versatility: A functional piece that works as a room divider, backdrop, or stylish accent to anchor open living spaces.
