Fenn Sculpture Black

Like a totem with a sense of humor. The Fenn Sculpture stacks playful forms into a tall, narrow silhouette that adds height without adding clutter. Carved from solid mango wood, it shows off crisp detailing and a high-contrast mix of Black and natural finishes for a modernist, graphic look. The detailing keeps it interesting up close, and the shape keeps it cool from across the room. Instant focal point, zero fuss.

- Stacked Modern Form: A tall, narrow silhouette with playful stacked shapes adds vertical interest to shelves and consoles, keeping your styling clean and considered.
- Solid Mango Wood: Crafted from mango wood for a warm, natural material foundation, finished in black with contrasting natural notes for added depth.
- Carved Detail Work: Carved accents give the surface definition and shadow, creating a graphic modernist look that reads as sculpture from every angle.
