ENJOY THE FINER THINGS, WITH EASE.

In Turkey, the ancient coffee brewing method is considered part of the cultural heritage and is a symbol of hospitality, relaxation, friendship, and sophistication. But tradition takes time. With the Beko Turkish Coffee Maker, you can enjoy Turkish coffee in just a couple of quick steps, right in your kitchen! Serving the caffeinated drink with a glass of water and a sweet treat, is also part of this much celebrated tradition.

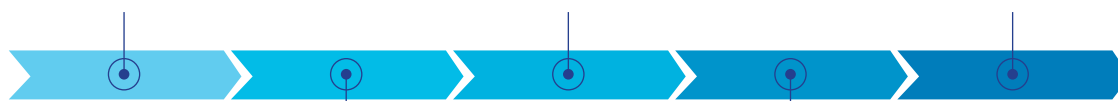

History of Turkish Coffee

In 1554, the first coffeehouses were established in Istanbul.

In 1668, coffee reached North America and the first coffeehouse in New York opened in 1696.

In 2013, UNESCO placed Turkish coffee on its "List of Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity."

In 1656, Ottoman Grand Vizier issued laws for shutting coffeehouses down in Istanbul.

By 1850, coffee was one of the most valuable commodities in Turkey.
