Vida Pendant Lamp Green

What tradition looks like with good lighting. Vida's soft, sculptural shape leans traditional, but the textured dark green finish and vertical contrast detailing give it a fresh, thoughtful twist. Rich in tone with the right amount of curve, it’s designed to bring warmth and charm to any setting. Hang one, hang three—it plays well solo or in a group.

- Timeless Texture: The warm, dark green finish and tactile, organic texture add depth and interest to the lamp's surface, inviting touch and providing a sense of warmth to any space.
- Playful Tradition: A soft, playful form, metal body, and vertical contrast detailing blend classic elements with modern sensibilities, making it a versatile addition to various interior styles.
