TITUS COCKTAIL TABLE

BJD22155-40

Elevate your living space with our architectural Titus Cocktail Table, a stunning blend of sculptural form and large-scale design. The cubic maple base appears to seamlessly penetrate through its quartersawn oak top, creating an eye-catching illusion. This multi-level surface stands beautifully on its own but also serves as a stylish foundation for your own personalized tablescape. If you eat at the coffee table on occasion, like many of us do, we've left enough space around the perimeter for a full size dinner plate so that you can enjoy your dinner and binge your favorite program all at once. This table is perfect for adding a touch of modern elegance and practicality to any room.
