

ISLAND

Finest details.

Lumina NRS cooker hood best expresses Falmec's attention to detail and manufacturing ability, emphasized in the steel frontal frame where a glass panel is perfectly placed.

Available in a range of finishes it has a high quality constructive and aesthetic detail. Featuring perimeter suction, the hood is also distinguished by a light strip, placed in the glass front, which adds further appeal to this product, helping to create an evocative atmosphere in the kitchen. Lumina is finally fitted with "Silence NRS" (Noise Reduction System) technology for an absolutely silent kitchen environment.
