Griffin Accent Chair Beige Stripe

Spindles do the talking on this one—solid ash, turned for crafted heritage character. Inspired by traditional crafted silhouettes, the Griffin leans warm and lived-in, with soft foam-and-fiber cushions that take the edge off all that woodwork. A dark warm brown finish deepens the ash grain, and the multi-toned stripe adds warm, textured contrast across the whole seat. Old-craft frame, with a settle-right-in seat to match.
