

Introduction

Crestron Universal Mounting Plates (CAEN-UMP Series) are a complete line of accessory plates, which allow mounting of non-Crestron equipment to any Crestron Automation Enclosure (CAEN-Series). Third-party products such as phone and alarm systems can be mounted to these plates within an enclosure. The advantage to using the CAEN-UMP is that a variety of sizes are available and each plate occupies the same area as one, two or four Crestron lighting modules (CLX-Series). The size corresponds to the number of module spaces and their arrangement within the enclosure. For example, CAEN-UMP2x2 occupies four module positions and CAEN-UMP1x1 occupies one module position. The others (CAEN-UMP2x1 and 1x2) occupy two module positions. Refer to the illustration on this page for an example of plate location and orientation within a double-wide enclosure. The table beneath the illustration lists the dimensions and weight for each CAEN-UMP model.

Installation

The CAEN-UMP must be mounted in accordance with all national and local codes.

NOTE: Adhere to Class 1 versus Class 2 wiring requirements when considering the equipment attached to the CAEN-UMPs in an enclosure.

NOTE: Third-party equipment attached to a CAEN-UMP within a Crestron Automated Enclosure should not be considered part of the Crestron system.

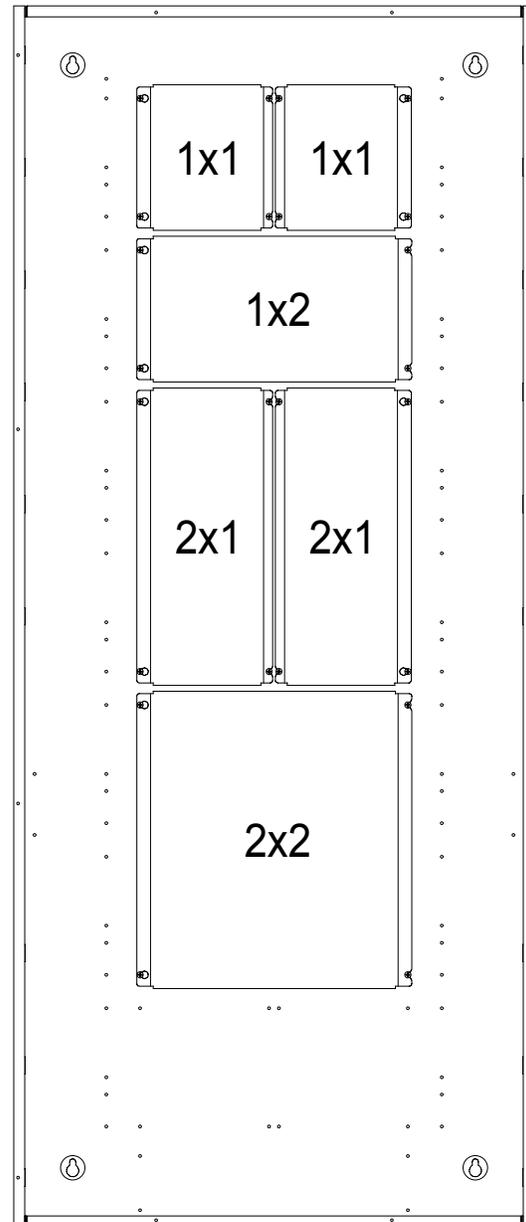

Use the four screws (8Bx1/4", supplied) to attach a CAEN-UMP to an enclosure. Crestron recommends that the keyholes on the plates be located toward the outer edges of the enclosure as shown in the drawing on this page. As a result, the flanges of the plates do not overlap each other when positioning any combination of CAEN-UMP2x1s, CAEN-UMP1x1s, or lighting modules side-by-side in an enclosure.
