Swift Lounge Modular Sectional Light Beige

Sectional comfort, without the logistics headache. Swift's modular sectional pieces connect with metal interlocking brackets, so you can create a nook, a lounge stretch, or a classic L that fits your room. Feather, fiber, and foam cushions keep things plush, while an engineered wood frame keeps the sit supportive. Upholstered in C0 performance polyester, it's durable for daily use. Knock-down construction is made for small parcel shipping and easy assembly. Rearrange whenever life changes too.

- Light Beige Stretch: Light beige upholstery keeps the modular silhouette airy, making the lounge setup feel relaxed while still leaving visual breathing room.
- C0 Performance Fabric: 100% polyester upholstery is performance treated and PFA-free, balancing a soft hand with durability suited to everyday living at home.
- Supportive Inside Story: Engineered wood framing anchors feather, fiber, and foam cushioning, keeping the seat comfortable while holding its shape through daily lounging.
- Easy KD Assembly: Knock-down construction supports small-parcel shipping, with full assembly required and metal interlocking brackets connecting the back and arms securely.
