MOE'S

Emmy Sectional Dark Blue Right

Big plans? Emmy's already curved into them. This contemporary sectional keeps the mood light with rounded edges and a sculptural profile that feels playful, not precious. Upholstered in highly textured, soft polyester in a rich dark blue, it brings color depth without stealing the whole room. Inside, foam, feather, and fiber cushioning layers in that sink-in comfort you'll actually use. Bonus: the cutout leg detail adds breathing room—visually and literally.

- Curved, Playful Profile: Rounded edges and a contemporary silhouette soften the room and make this sectional feel inviting from every angle.
- Textured Polyester Upholstery: Soft, highly textured 100% polyester in dark blue adds rich color depth and everyday comfort, giving the sectional presence without overwhelming the room.
- Supportive Frame Core: An engineered wood frame provides steady structure beneath the curves, keeping the look airy while staying well-made and dependable.
- Cloud-Feel Cushions: A foam, feather, and fiber fill mix delivers a cushioned sit with cozy loft, so lounging looks as good as it feels.
