Cameo Mirror Aged Brass

Some mirrors don’t just reflect—they refine. Cameo brings a heritage feel to your walls with a round shape and an aged brass finish that reads timeless, not fussy. It’s transitional in the best way: traditional warmth with clean, easy lines that slide into bedrooms, entryways, and above-the-console moments. Framed in iron with mirrored glass and an MDF back panel for support, it’s a simple upgrade that makes the whole room feel more considered.

- Heritage Round Frame: A classic circle profile with a transitional attitude—softens sharp lines and plays well with both modern and traditional spaces.
- Aged Brass Finish: Warm, lived-in tone adds depth without shouting, giving your wall a subtle focal point that doesn’t steal the room.
- Supported Back Panel: MDF backing helps the mirror feel stable and well-finished, so it hangs with confidence in high-traffic spots.
