Innis Wall Art Brown

Wood wall art, with just enough attitude. Innis brings mid-century modern clarity to your walls with a playful geometric shape and crisp linear cutouts. It's carved from solid mango wood, so the natural grain does the heavy lifting—warm, varied, and never identical twice. The cutout detailing adds depth and shadow without feeling busy, making it an easy upgrade for hallways, above consoles, or behind a desk. Hanging hardware included—done and done.

- Mid-Century Geometry: A minimalist, mid-century-inspired silhouette adds structure and personality, giving your wall a clean focal point that plays well with other decor.
- Solid Mango Wood: Crafted from solid mango wood with natural grain variation, bringing warm tone and organic character that reads grounded and well-made.
- Linear Cutout Detail: Precision cutouts create depth and shadow, and hanging hardware is included so it mounts easily and sits flush for a tidy finish.
