Corey Coffee Table Dark Brown

Meet the coffee table that holds the room together. Corey keeps things calm with a round silhouette that feels both timeless and current—ready for weeknight takeout, Sunday papers, and everything in between. The thick tabletop pairs with a simple pedestal base, sized in equal visual weight for a grounded, harmonious profile. Oak veneer over MDF lets the wood grain take the lead in a Dark Brown finish. Centered, steady, and easy to live with, daily.

- Balanced Round Profile: A clean, round pedestal shape with matched proportions reads calm and intentional—an easy anchor for sofas, sectionals, and seating clusters.
- Oak Grain Spotlight: Oak veneer over MDF highlights natural wood variation, giving you a warm, grounded look with a finish that keeps the space feeling cohesive.
- Substantial Top, Solid Feel: A thick tabletop pairs with a sturdy pedestal base for a well-made presence that looks considered from every angle.
- Pedestal-Friendly Footprint: The centered base keeps legroom open and seating flexible, so arranging stools, poufs, or extra chairs feels effortless.
