Frans Sideboard Brown

Fabric-inset doors swap solid panels for soft texture, giving the Frans sideboard warmth and texture in equal measure. A solid oak frame surrounds each door with profiled moulding — a classic, well-crafted detail that frames the front with quiet precision. The mid-tone brown body pairs with deep dark brown fabric panels for a layered, tonal look. A stepped plinth base lifts the whole piece visually, so all that storage still feels light on its feet.

- Fabric-Inset Doors: Soft fabric panels set into the doors mix material and texture, bringing warmth and visual depth across the front of the sideboard.
- Solid Oak Frame: A solid oak frame anchors the body in a mid-tone brown, paired with deep dark brown fabric panels for a layered, tonal finish.
- Profiled Moulding: A profiled moulding traces each door panel, a classic detail that gives the front a considered, well-crafted feel you notice up close.
- Stepped Plinth Base: A stepped plinth base lifts the silhouette for visual lightness, so all that concealed storage feels grounded yet easy in the room.
